CAMP IN A NATURAL WILDERNESS

Discover your family's next camping adventure inside the Walt Disney World Resort, at the Fort Wilderness Campground Resort — scenic campsites set amidst 740 acres of woods and winding streams. Each campsite comfortably accommodates as many as seven people and features the comforts of home: a charcoal grill, 110/220 volt electricity, water, waste disposal systems, even a picnic table. A special Creekside Meadow accommodates Group Campers with tents. $4 per person per night (tents are available for rental). Convenient air-conditioned comfort stations include private showers, ice dispensers, restrooms, laundry facilities, and telephones. Best of all, as a Fort Wilderness Resort guest, you're entitled to purchase special-value multi-day World

Passports, and to use the Walt Disney World Transportation System to reach the fun and fantasy of the Magic Kingdom, fabulous Epcot Center, and the rest of the World's Greatest Resort.

CAMPSITE RENTAL:

Campsite only: $30 with hookup, $25 without hookup, and $35 for preferred site per night, plus tax. Price and campsite availability subject to change without notice.

FLEETWOOD TRAILER HOME RENTALS

Trailer Homes from Fleetwood, the Official Recreational Vehicle of Fort Wilderness Campground Resort, are available fully equipped with air-conditioning, carpeting, color TV, radio, cookware and housekeeping service. Rentals also include the use of a new pool.

Trailer and site: $120 per night, plus tax for six; $100 per night, plus tax for four.

DISCOVERY ISLAND Come visit an island paradise! Here, amidst tropical foliage and towering palms, is the Walt Disney World Resort's own certified zoological park — a wildlife sanctuary for African cranes, scarlet ibis, and other rare and exotic birds. Explore the landscaped splendor of one of the world's largest outdoor aviaries. Or visit with our resident slowpokes, the Galapagos tortoises. Quickly accessible by motor launch, Discovery Island is a place where everyone should "cast off" for a while. Admission fee. Combination River Country/Discovery Island tickets available.

WILDERNESS RECREATION

In addition to bicycling, boating, fishing, water-skiing, horseback riding, basketball and volleyball, Fort Wilderness Resort guests can enjoy swimming and tennis at the new Meadow Recreational Complex.

Play areas for children can be found throughout the campground, and our Petting Farm features some of the friendliest critters around.

FOOD 'N FUN At the Settlement and Meadow Trading posts, you'll find a wide variety of deli and grocery items for your own campfire cookin' (camping gear and accessories are also available). Pioneer Hall's Trail's End Buffeteria also features delicious buffet meals — plus, each evening is "build your own pizza" time. There's Crockett's Tavern, too, where the whole family can gather frontier-style for hearty food and drink. Pioneer Hall is the home of the "Hoop-Dee-Doo Musical Revue" — a hand-clappin', foot-stompin' family dinner show served with all the ribs, chicken, and fixin's you can eat. (Reservations required.) You wake up every morning to fun with Chip 'n' Dale at the "Melvin the Moose Breakfast Show." (Reservations suggested.)

at the "Melvin the Moose Breakfast Show." (Reservations suggested.)

RIVER COUNTRY Discover an old-fashioned swimmin' hole where you can ride, slide, and splash away the day umpteen different ways! Take a rib-tickling ride down a spiraling 260-foot water slide. Navigate a tube down winding rapids. Or just soak up some sun along the soft, sandy beach. You can enjoy a whole day of water adventures, all for one River Country admission ticket.

PIONEER HALL

EPCOT CENTER DISCOVER

EPCOT CENTER Travel in time from the era of dinosaurs to the age of the stars. Discover the secrets of a Mayan pyramid. Dine beneath the Eiffel Tower. Tour the history of communication inside an 18-story sphere. At Epcot Center you can even see the World's sixth ocean — The Living Seas — and Michael Jackson in 3-D as "Captain EO." Explore Future World and World Showcase for the time of your life.

THE MAGIC KINGDOM

THE MAGIC KINGDOM Six lands of fun surrounding a fairytale castle. That's the Magic Kingdom, a favorite of kids age six to sixty! Visit Main Street, U.S.A., Frontierland, Fantasyland, Adventureland, Liberty Square, and Tomorrowland — each an unforgettable experience. Epcot Center and the Magic Kingdom offer at least three full days of fun and adventure. You'll want to purchase a three, four, or five-day World Passport to allow enough time to enjoy it all!
